2018 Goal-Setting Engagement for the City of Guadalupe

As part of a goal-setting engagement, retired Santa Maria City Manager Rick Haydon sat down with individual City Council Members and selected City staff (the City Administrator, City Attorney, Director of Public Safety/Chief of Police and the Finance Director) to have a discussion about norms and solicited input on what they felt were the most important norms in order to have an effective working relationship. In addition, he also requested that Councilmembers provide him with three to five City-related goals to help facilitate a goal-setting exercise.

Throughout the process of this engagement, it was very evident that those interviewed were very candid in their responses and weren't hesitant to express their individual perspectives. Having said that, it should be noted that the consensus of those interviewed expressed that everyone in the City has the best of intentions to do what's right for the community in which they serve, that staff is doing the best they can with the limited resources they have, and that everyone interviewed truly had a sincere desire to do what's best for the organization, the City, and the community.

The intent of these interviews was twofold: 1) to solicit feedback on expectations in order to foster better working relationships and 2) to identify work-related norms in which to aid in enhancing existing working relationships. Accordingly, to be an effective City team or working group (City Council), clearly established behavioral norms are essential. In that regard, norms are procedures or conduct that all team members (both Councilmembers and City staff) should agree to comply with in order to have effective working relationships.

The following is a summary of the information shared during the one-on-one interviews.

I. From Council's perspective, they feel that their primary purpose is:

- Policy making – Council makes the policy and staff implements it
- To make informed decisions after receiving input from the public, staff and reviewing all the facts
- To make decisions on behalf of the residents after seeking consensus
- To ensure the safety and welfare of the community
- To move forward and address the City's budgetary and financial issues
- To know what the community's needs are and to be an advocate for them

II. From Council's perspective, the following is what they expect from City staff:

- No Surprises
 - To let Councilmembers know as soon as possible regarding important matters, controversial or politically sensitive issues once staff becomes aware of them
 - For staff to inform Council whenever there is contact with the news media and to let them know the nature of the contact
 - When advice or direction is given by a Council majority, the expectation is that staff will follow-it

- Good Communication
 - To answer questions directly, promptly and in a manner that provides Council with as much complete information as possible, based on the question(s) posed
 - To provide the City Council with information (dealing with legal issues and complex matters) well in advance of them having to make decisions
 - With only one Council Meeting a month, Council would like more information sharing and City-related information to be shared with all Councilmembers and not just with the Mayor and Mayor Pro Tem
 - For staff to return phone calls in a reasonable and timely manner
 - Routine/periodic one-on-one meetings with the Councilmembers
 - When recommendations are made or when Council is unable to take an action, please explain the rationale or legal authority prohibiting them from taking such action (i.e. "tell us why we can't do what we want to do")
 - Better strategic public outreach for announcing and noticing meetings in an effort to get more public participation at meetings (water bill stuffers)

- To respect each others' roles in the organization – as policy makers and as administrators

- Ensure good communication and good working relationships between key staff members; namely, the City Administrator and the Director of Public Safety/Chief of Police

III. From staff's perspective, what do they need from the City Council?

- To work through the City Administrator (or Director of Public Safety/Chief of Police for police-related matters) should Council have operational questions
 - Both the City Administrator and Director of Public Safety/Chief of Police prefer this approach as it makes them aware of Council's concerns and interests
 - Better flow of communication between the City Council, City Administration and the Public Safety Department(s)
- That Council provide staff with questions regarding Council Agenda Items in advance of the City Council Meeting in order to provide staff sufficient time to obtain the appropriate information/answers
 - Acknowledge that the Consent Agenda is designed for routine (non-controversial) administrative items in order to expedite the meeting
- Periodic and/or routine one-on-one monthly meetings with Councilmembers
- That when Council is making decisions that have a financial impact, that they take into consideration: 1) the City's current financial situation before making any decisions and 2) that the City has limited staffing resources
- An understanding that as a full-service City, the City is required to provide a multitude of public services with very limited staffing resources and funding
 - That the workload in all City departments doesn't allow sufficient time for staff to hold two City Council Meetings per month
 - That the City still needs sustainable resources and that we're "not out of the woods yet" in regard to financial challenges
 - That the majority of staffs' current workload deals with operational deficiencies that, in order to be properly addressed, requires a significant amount of staff time
- Because of Brown Act concerns, when Councilmembers receive emails from staff, that they do not "reply to all", but rather reply only back to the City Administrator or City Attorney (or if applicable, Director of Public Safety/Chief of Police)
- That Councilmembers should not engage or have a dialog with members of the public during the Public Comment portion of City Council Meetings
 - Should Council desire to address comments from the public, further assistance maybe provided by staff

IV. What do Councilmembers need from each other?

- To be respectful and professional to one another (and to staff), and know that it's okay to agree to disagree as long as it is done professionally
- When listening to someone, listen to understand rather than to respond
- Come to Council Meetings with an open mind (wait until after public testimony before you state your position on an item)
- When coming to Council Meetings, try to leave political agendas "at the door" and don't personalize things while you are sitting on the dais
- Base decisions on business related facts rather than emotions
- Realize that changes in the economy requires Councilmembers to think out-of-the box and be flexible and open to changes
- Be mindful that the Mayor has to run an orderly meeting, and in the interest of decorum, don't interrupt others or speak until recognized by the Mayor
- For Councilmembers to respond back, in a timely manner, to their fellow Councilmember(s) when they leave an email or phone message
- Do not engage members of the public in a dialog during the Public Comment Section, and when members of the public are before the City Council, to remember to show empathy (i.e. "put yourself in their shoes")
- Be consistent in providing all members of the public with the same amount of time to make their comments
- To engage and communicate with each other at community events or functions other than just at the Council Meetings – in an effort to get to know each other better
- In the spirit of transparency, have more open dialog at Council Meetings in an effort to understand where everyone stands on certain City-related issues – especially when someone disagrees on an item
- Once a decision has been made by Council, support that decision and move on to the next item
- Realize that the City can not do everything for everyone and that the City has limited staffing and financial resources
- To remind ourselves of our role and mission as a Councilmember and to conduct ourselves professionally while on the dais (rules of decorum)
- At the end of each City Council Meeting, that Councilmembers provide brief report(s) on information pertaining to their respective Board and/or Commission assignments as well as upcoming community events

V. What are some challenges and/or areas of concern facing the City?

- Addressing the General Fund budget deficit and the lack of sufficient reserves
- Sales tax leakage and the need for a more sustainable revenue stream (now)
- The need to have a strategic plan to prioritize how to address the deficit
- Deferred maintenance at WWTP & Tognazzini Well
- Ability to purchase new (public safety) equipment and vehicles
- Lack of a City Mission Statement
- Need to payback enterprise funds
- Prior planning snafus with some of the larger construction projects
- Appeal of the H2A Olivera Street Apartment Project Decision
- Upcoming (CalPERS) pension-related expenses
- Hiring a new Director of Public Safety (Chief of Police)
- Lack of recreational opportunities and a Recreation Commission
- Workload challenge – having to deal with numerous completing projects and a high workload with very limited staffing resources
- Because of limited staffing and resources, staff is stretched thin and we (the City) can't do everything
- Training for Councilmembers and City staff
- Lack of engagement of the Millennial and Generation Z population in community affairs

VI. Interests of Council Members - that staff should be made aware of.....

- Balancing the City's General Fund Budget and increasing reserves
- Educating the public on the City's financial constraints
- Making the City more sustainable and attractive to young adults
- Working more closely with the local school district
- Enhance Public Safety (gun control and firearm restrictions)
- Redevelopment of the downtown and infill projects
- More recreational programs and opportunities for the community
- Move forward on the General Plan Update
- Improve City facilities
- Attract more retail establishments
- Be business friendly so as to create more local jobs
- A desire to work with organizations willing to help our youth
- Create a larger variety of housing options for residents
- The need to live within our means

VII. What are some of the City's recent accomplishments?

- The new Pasadera residential subdivision – will help with the tax base
- Well attended community workshops - designed to keep everyone informed
- The hiring of good City staff – limited personnel means we need good staff
- Community support - helped pass the revenue measures
- Addressed financial challenges – reduced the general fund deficit and agreeing on cost-cutting measures
- Low crime rate in Santa Barbara County - better community image
- Guadalupe Hall of Fame - community pride
- Activities at O'Connell Park – more recreational activities
- Grant Awards – receipt of additional revenue
- Transitioned fund balances into interest bearing accounts
- Increased training in the Police Department
- Created the seasonal fire-fighter position for mutual aid events
- Guadalupe Court Project (PSHH) – received more revenue
- General Plan Update – Cal Poly helping to moving this project forward
- Completion of CDBG applications – ability to complete on such short notice
- Bond refinancing – saving taxpayers money
- Partnerships with community groups – ability to leverage resources
- Coastal Conservancy – Supervisor Hartmann provided funding for the beach trail study
- Coastal Conservancy Visitors Committee – approved upgrades to the Guadalupe Dunes entry and bathrooms
- Designated a Federal Opportunity Zone
- Being able to operate the City with limited staffing and financial resources
- In light of limited resources, retention of City staff
- Partnerships with neighboring agencies
- The ability of staff to wear “different hats” in order to run City operations

Proposed City Council Goals June 12, 2018

City Councilmembers were asked to prepare up to five proposed Major Citywide Goals that in their mind, are the most important, highest priority things for the City to address during the next fiscal year. Below are the proposed goals, organized by topic and presented in alphabetical order (thus, the order does not reflect its priority in the list). Where there have been similar goal concepts proposed, recommended wording to synthesize the goal statements have been prepared. To increase consistency and understanding, some revisions are also suggested.

In some cases a goal proposed by a City Councilmember maybe similar in nature to another goal submitted by another Councilmember, in those instances, the goals were either combined for consistency purposes or the overarching goal was indicated, followed by associated sub-goals.
